

Social Responsibility is incorporated into MARDI S.A. As a commitment to contribute to the Sustainable human development through the generation of social, economic and environmental value. Socially responsible entrepreneurial action has an ethical foundation, starting from the Recognition of the impacts their decisions have on stakeholders; It is Articulated the strategic objectives and will be managed from the daily business of the company and The people who make it up.

MARDI S.A. Has voluntarily decided to comply with the following commitments associated with the social responsibility:

A) Comply with all social responsibility requirements documented by MARDI Through its RS Management System to ensure that it is adequate and effective.

B) Comply with national laws, other applicable laws and other requirements that the organization And to respect international instruments and their interpretation based on the Declaration United Nations Human Rights, ILO standards and other international human rights Human rights and labor rights, as well as national Empower and protect all personnel within the control and influence of an organization, which Provide products or services for this organization, including staff employed Directly by the organization and its suppliers, contractors, sub-suppliers and Workers from home.

C) Comply with the legislation on the care of the environment, seeking a management Responsible business, focused on control over environmental impact, involving a Awareness and commitment of all members of MARDI, its suppliers, contractors, Sub-suppliers.

D) Review its policy, on a regular basis, to continuously improve Changes in legislation, the requirements of its own code of conduct and any other requirements Of the company;

Firm

Representative of the Management of MARDI S.A.